Northern Transit is, and always will be your local no cost transportation source. Although we do accept donations You can find us at many local events. Stop by and say Hi! We would love to chat about our services.

With the kids on an extended break from school, take a ride on our bus. We travel to Great Falls on Monday and Thursday and to Kalispell on Tuesday and Friday.

As another year ends, Northern Transit wants to Thank you, the rider, for riding with us. This past year has had its own set of challenges but also several rewards. NTI's ridership shattered the record year of 2019, giving 1900 rides this year.

Northern Transit Interlocal is a non-profit organization. All funds received by the transit are returned to the transit to keep this a free public service to everyone.

Featured Employee for the month of December is our Transit Director David R Irvin. David has been the Director of Northern Transit for six years plus. He is the backbone of the transit and loves what he does. he is always improving the transit to help every rider get the First-class service they deserve.

Thank you David for leading our team...

MERRY CHRISTMAS 2022!
